DAFM SELECTION PROCESS

The weighting of the various criteria is as follows:

- previous studies and English language proficiency: 40 - 40%;
- CV: 15 %;
- Application form details: 5%.

The Selection Committee will approve the new students under lead of the contractor in a meeting at the end of march. The contractor will send the final list of the new students to the EACEA.

Admission is granted to prospective students who meet the admission criteria which are stated in the joint Education and Examination Regulations. The Selection committee will select candidates for admission; and admission at one of the parties is automatically accepted at all other parties. Scholarships cover the cost of a student's participation in the programme, travel and a living allowance with its sum of 1400 EUR/month for 24 months.

DAFM can admit per intake:

- 5 EU applicants with an Erasmus Mundus scholarship,
- 5 EU applicants without scholarship but tuition fee free,
- 16 non-EU applicants with an Erasmus Mundus scholarship and
- 5 non-EU applicants without scholarship but tuition fee free.

Maximum number of enrolled students per nation is two.

Students in the program will be registered at each of the parties for the full duration of their studies as regular students, with full local student's rights and services.

This is done in due time before the student starts studies in the partner university in question and study fees will be charged if applicable.

DAFM APPEAL PROCEDURE

Students have the right to appeal against the decision on the rejection of application for a scholarship/acceptance to DAFM, if they believe that their application has not been treated fairly. In this case the applicant must duly justify their reasons for appeal using the appeal form available on the website. The form must be signed and needs to be sent (together with any applicable supporting documents) via E-mail to info@agrifoodmaster.eu within 10 days after notification of the selection results. The DAFM Consortium will review the candidate and reply within 14 days after receiving the appeal, with an explanation and, if applicable, a change in decision-making.

Please note that we receive a high number of applications for DAFM scholarships and competition is very high. In case of questions regarding the selection procedure, you can also contact the DAFM Consortium via info@agrifoodmaster.eu instead of sending an appeal.
